

N. Hafimi Abdul Haadii @ Frances M C Lo is a third generation entrepreneur which started as a small company by her paternal grandfather and has over thirty years grown into a group of companies, with diverse interests from travel, interior design and trading to international trade, project management and integrated global initiatives.

She is the oldest of 6 children and spent her early education in St Andrew's School, Brunei Darussalam and Papakowphai Elementary School, New Zealand. Her secondary education continued at St Andrew's School, Brunei Darussalam and Geelong Grammar School, Australia. She continued her tertiary education at Deakin University where she attained a Bachelor of Arts in Architecture and a Bachelor of Architecture with First Class Honours.

During the course of her secondary and tertiary education, she gained valuable architectural experience in Buchan Liard & Bawden, a well established architectural firm in Geelong, Victoria and worked in London, with Whinney Mackay-Lewis Partnership, an established architectural practice in the United Kingdom.

In 1998, after spending more than 10 years in Australia, she returned to Brunei to apprentice and train in various position in several family companies and was confirmed in the position of Executive Director for LO International Sdn Bhd in 2000.

The next step represents the continuous challenge of evolving from a local business structure to an international network. She is responsible for steering the diverse business of the family's holdings and strengthening the future direction of LVK Group of Companies in taking up opportunities beyond Brunei with a long term vision of developing integrated projects within ASEAN and increasing networks with emerging markets such as Russia and the Middle East.

