YEAB, ACB talk on cooperation

By Yusrin Junaidi

Bandar Seri Begawan - The Young Entrepreneur's Association of Brunei and Anti-Corruption Bureau held a dialogue session to boost cooperation between the private sector and the government bodies.

The dialogue chaired by Senior Assistant Director, HajiAbdullah binAbd Rahman was attended by bureau representatives, YEAB members and Asia Inc Forum SME participants.

The bureau provided an overview of division and department. A dialogue with YEAB members headed by the President of YEAB, Hjh Mazrina bte Hj Md Yussuf followed.

"These dialogues between the YEAB and various government departments and private institutions are designed to provide both sides with a better understanding of one another and hopefully foster greater cooperation. This will eventually translate to a better way of doing business between Young Entrepreneurs and the public and the private sector in Brunei," she said.

The topics covered were ways young entrepreneurs can contribute in preventing corruption among them and how YEAB and ACB can work together in giving the entrepreneurs a better understanding of corruption.

The dialogue also discussed the next steps to increase cooperation between the YEAB and ACB in the future.

The association said it will continue its drive to 'provide a platform for its members to exchange ideas and experiences as well as networking opportunities'. --
