

Zul Idris is a motivated member of YEAB as an up and coming young registered architect practicing in Brunei.

Zul has spent a considerable time in Sydney, Australia where he graduated from USYD in 2003 and Sydney is where he has gained design and project experience in hospitality, public works, commercial and high rise residential works.

Since returning to Brunei in 2007 he has been key architect to several landmark projects such as the SLA headquarters building and the New women and childrens wing of RIPAS hospital, Brunei.

